The photograph is a sepia-toned landscape scene. In the foreground, there is a fence made of vertical wooden posts and horizontal rails. Behind the fence, there are trees and a grassy area. The sky is visible in the upper part of the image. The entire photograph is covered with handwritten text in cursive script, which is mostly illegible due to the angle and the way the ink has bled into the paper. The text appears to be written in several places, including the top, middle, and bottom of the image. Some of the legible words include "Dennis Mack", "Sweep", "You", "I", "the", "and", "will", "knowing", "act", "and still", and "to".

I've had a well time in Latin and knowing
you these last 2 yrs. Can you still translate what I wrote last year?

I decided to be
anti-father & pro-English this year.

We the student body of M. C. H. S. would like to dedicate our annual,
'The Bomber of '59,'
to the people who have given to us guidance,
help, security, and love.
Our Parents.

A black and white photograph of a school building entrance. Above the entrance, there is a large sign with the words "WEST" and "HAY" visible. The entrance features a set of double doors with windows. A vertical pole or pipe runs down the center of the image, partially obscuring the view. The overall tone is somber and historical.

Foreword

If the Events of the seasons which follow recall to your memory any day, event, or person, it has accomplished its purpose.

Because plans begin much earlier than we students realize, we devote Summer to the Administrators and Teachers... To the Sophomores, who began their first year at M. C. H. S., Fall is momentous... To the Juniors, who have the promise to the coming year, Winter is significant, as the forerunner of Spring... What Senior can forget the Spring of 1959? Happiness and anticipation, tinged only with regret, reigned supreme.

As the seasons come and go our perspectives enlarge, our ideals change, and our memories of the past fade into dimness. That we may always remember this wonderful year of our lives---the staff presents the '59 BOMBER.
